

Local Naming Service / Name Gateway

- The physical implementation of a local naming service (if required) could be hosted as a stand alone process within the DFSP or as a process within Mule.
- V1 of the Naming Gateway is simply a proxy to the global naming service
- V2 could include functionality like recognizing an address as local and then querying a local naming service. It could also implement caching of results.

